WITH A BAR OF IRON.

Negro Makes Assault on Policeman
Whittington.

Down near Sergeant's foundry last night about ten o'clock Officers Whittington and Pearce found a negro, Joe Taylor, who was wanted at headquarters for disorderly conduct. The negro ran, but was overtaken in the grove near Mr. R. R. King's. He saw he was about to be taken and turned on the officers, striking a murderous blow at Officer Whittington, who was nearest him. The policeman saw his peril and caught the lick on his left arm, at the same instant drawing his weapon and firing two shots at his assailant.

The two policemen then put the negro in irons and marched him to the lock-up. This morning he exhibited a slight scar across the left cheek, which he claims was made by a bullet from the officer's pistol. It is thought that other charges of disorderly conduct may be entered against Taylor.

Since the above was put in type one of the officers who made the arrest has been seen and there is a slight discrepancy in the above report. Mr. Pearce was in front and nearest the negro giving him hot pursuit. Near Mr. King's he lost sight of him and ran on, but saw he had passed his man. He turned back just as he heard Mr. Whittington shoot and saw the negro advancing. He waited until Taylor was near him. The two men saw each other and they went together. The negro is a powerful man, but Mr. Pearce threw him and had him in irons when Mr. Whittington approached, and together they carried Taylor to the lock-up.

The piece of iron with which the negro assaulted Mr. Whittington is an old rusty pipe and is sufficiently heavy to have brained him had he not caught the lick on his arm.

COLORED TROOPS WANTED.

Order Received Yesterday at the Recruiting Office Here.

Mr. P. E. Stroud, of the United States army, who has charge of the recruiting office here in the absence of Lieutenant Douglas Settle, informed a Telegram man this morning that he received orders yesterday from the adjutant-general to begin enlisting all the colored troops he could secure here for service in the 48th and 49th infantry. Preference will be given men who have seen service in the regular army volunteers or in the militia. Mr. Stroud thinks he will have no difficulty in getting all the men he is looking for at this station. Several applicants have already presented themselves and will undergo the necessary medical examination today. Those who join the 48th regiment will be sent to Fort Thomas, Ky., where the regiment is stationed; and the 49th recruits will be sent to Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

FOUR RECRUITS LISTED.

Since writing the above the following colored men have passed successful examinations and enlisted for the 49th infantry: Sam Davis, Albemarle, N. C.; John H. Hill, Marietta, Ga.; Joe Stroud, Chapel Hill, N. C.; Benjamin Brown, Charlotte, N. C. They will be sent to Fort Thomas, Ky., in a few days.

THE NEW RAILROAD LINK.

About Seventy-five Men and Horses Engaged in the Work.

Work is steadily progressing on the short connecting link between the Southern and its new acquisition, the old C. F. and Y. V. There will be only a short stretch of track to lay, probably 200 yards, but the location necessitates a tremendous fill-in, while several days will be required to complete. Thirty-five or forty men and as many horses have been engaged in the work for several days.

Work on the new turntable, which will be situated on the new link, is also going ahead rapidly.

Want a Suit.

Mr. Phil D. Kahn, representing Kahn Bros., of Louisville, Ky., fashionable tailors, is at C. M. Vanstony & Co.'s taking orders and measures for tailor made suits. He has an elegant line of samples, and the reputation of his firm guarantees a perfect fit. If a suit ordered of them is not right they will make it right. Remember he is now at Vanstony's but will only be there today and tomorrow.

Petition in Bankruptcy.

Mr. I. N. Carmichael, a merchant of Walkertown, Forsyth county, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy before Clerk Trogdon, of the Federal court, in this city today.

A new line of the latest things in dotted and plain wallings, black and white, has just been opened at Thacker & Brockmann's.

City public school No. 3, at the Normal College, will open on Monday, September 18. On next Saturday from 9 to 12 o'clock examinations for new pupils will be held in the building. It is important that they report at this time as no examinations will be held on Monday. G. A. Grimes, Sup.

THE BOERS WILL CONCEDE

The Demands of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain.

3000 BOERS TO BE DISPATCHED

To the Border After the Dispatch has Been Sent—An Early Conflict Is Expected.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Sept. 15.—The Times' second edition special from New Castle says the Outlanders' council has transmitted to their government what amount of practical protest they will make to further delay the states. Nothing can confirm the special.

The Boers will concede Chamberlain's demand, but that three thousand men will be sent to the border after the reply has been sent. Everything points to an early conflict.

Advices from Cape Town tend to confirm the views of the Times correspondent. The news that a strong force of Boers is stationed one hour from Pamatlabama, commanding the Pretoria and Johannesburg roads, creates the greatest indignation in Cape Colony.

AWAITING THE BOER REPLY.

London, Sept. 15.—Transvaal's situation is now one of anxious waiting. Much depends upon the Boer reply, which is now being debated in the Reichstag. It is understood the reply has been received at the colonial office from the British diplomatic agent at Pretoria. Its contents cannot be learned. The indications are that it is not satisfactory to Great Britain.

CONFISCATION ACT.

Johannesburg, Sept. 15.—A draft of the confiscation act, proposed to be immediately added to the gold law, empowers the Transvaal government to insist upon the continuance of the mining operations partially and to wholly suspend all mining property in the event of a refusal to confiscate the claim of area, subject only to the mortgage rights of the martial law in force. The government is entitled to the possession of the mines and to work them for its own benefit, the state to compensate their right is protected by international law. The new high treason law confiscates all property to the state belonging to persons convicted of treason. This applies to non-residents owning property in the Transvaal.

SENATOR JAMES K. JONES.

Outlines the Platform of the Party in the Next Campaign.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Sept. 15.—Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic Central Executive Committee, today officially outlined the platform of the democratic party in the next presidential campaign. He said that the platform will be anti-imperialist, free silver, anti-trust, and for a reduction in the tariff.

The senator stated further that the report that his views conflicted with those of the committee were without foundation. He added that Bryan will surely be elected.

VANDERBILT'S FUNERAL.

Many Notable People Present—The Services Were Simple.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Sept. 15.—St. Bartholomew's church was thronged this morning with the most notable people of the city and country, in attendance upon the funeral ceremonies of Vanderbilt. The services were simple. Railroad hands manifested great interest and displayed much affection, as though the deceased had been a personal friend. Rev. David H. Greer officiated and Bishop Potter participated in the exercises.

SERIOUS AFFAIRS

In China—Travel Only Possible With Military Escort.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—The Cologne Gazette prints a dispatch from Shanghai, which reports serious affairs at Hunterland. The Chinese government has endeavored to keep the German minister at Peking in ignorance concerning the condition of affairs in the interior. Telegrams received report that the German mission at Shanghai has been annihilated. Railroad communication is only possible with a strong military escort.

Almost Burned to Death.

H. A. Tucker, of Wilmington, was almost burned to death in Charlotte last night. He was in bed asleep at the Charlotte Hotel when a lamp exploded, setting fire to the bed clothing. Escaping from the flames, he sustained frightful injuries.

Not Yet Caught.

The report that the throwing of broken particles of glass in the street is the work of our city bicycle doctors has not yet been substantiated.

WHICH IS THE BEST?

A Circus With a Dispensary or One With Bar Rooms.

Selling liquor is selling liquor, say our anti-dispensary friends. So it is. But open bar rooms is one way to sell it, and a dispensary is another.

Day before yesterday the circus was here, and it brought a large crowd of people. Some one has emphasized the fact that four or five people were arrested for drunkenness, and old John Lowlow, the clown, with great glee, pointed to a drunk man a rest under the canvas as "the fruit of the dispensary." Nobody will attempt to dispute that dispensary liquor will make a man as drunk as that purchased in any other way. Nobody has ever claimed that the dispensary mode of handling the "reeking red" would correct all the evils of intemperance. Nobody has ever claimed that it was impossible for an habitual drunkard to buy whiskey in a dispensary town. There is always some pimp, who for the sake of a smell at the bottle almost, will get it for a drunkard.

But recently we pointed out the contrast between the number of cases for "drunk and down" during the last month under the barroom system, and the first under the dispensary. It was sixteen to seven, you remember.

Now, take the circus day of nearly a year ago when before eight nearly every bar in the city had to close its doors for protection against the drunken mob! Do you anti-dispensary people remember that? Do you remember that the police had their hands full and that about fifteen were in the jug for drunkenness? How was it day before yesterday? Only four or five looked up for drunkenness, and police had an easy time. One officer said that by the time the circus train left town everything was as quiet as Sunday, when the year before there was drinking and carousing nearly all night.

Just lay aside your grudge about restriction of "personal liberties" a few minutes and note the above comparison. Then quietly and calmly consider the question: Which is the best?

STOPPED A TRAIN.

A Courting Young Man Carried a Strong Light.

Last night a young gentleman of this city was up about Pomona on his wheel calling. "Our informant says he was up there to see a young lady. Whether this is true does not matter, as he had a perfect right to do so.

Any way he was returning home at a late hour, and was riding his wheel along the smooth path beside the railway track, and an outgoing freight train turned into the long stretch of straight track near Hugh Scott's factory and the engineer was appalled to see the headlight, as he thought, of another train approaching. Signals were given, but were not answered. They were repeated by shrill blasts of the whistle and still no response came from the other "engineer."

It was a critical moment. Visions of piled wreck and broken bones probably flitted before the engineer's gaze and he stopped his train and hurried out a flagman.

The wheelman, entirely innocent, as wheelmen are wont to ride along that path, noticed the train had stopped and saw the flagman hurriedly alight and start rapidly down the track. Our friend had on his wheel one of those powerful solar lights and the situation began to dawn upon him. He hurriedly left the railroad and got out upon the highway, mounted and resumed his journey at a lively clip.

As he passed along near the caboose he heard the conductor's exclamation of surprise and disgust at the way they had been fooled and signing the engineer ahead the train rolled on in safety, and the wheelman came into town wondering if they recognized him. It was as "ships that pass in the night," but only one of them spoke.

To the Ladies.

The following letter is addressed to all the ladies of Greensboro:

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. '99.

Dear Madam: Having bought the entire Millinery Business, formerly conducted by Mrs. C. C. Gorrell, at 109 West Market Street, we solicit a share of your patronage.

We shall carry a full and complete line of up-to-date millinery, in the newest and latest styles, at all times, and employ only skilled and experienced trimmers, so that we can guarantee our work to be of the best and our prices reasonable. A call from you will be appreciated.

Very Truly,
Mrs. Gorrell & Dorsett.

At the earnest solicitation of friends I have decided to open a private kindergarten on September 18. Having been in the work for the past six years I assure the public of the most thorough and up to date kindergarten methods. Mrs. Margaret Y. Johnson, 305 W. Washington street.

INDIAN SCOUTS AT LUZON

Tillman's Proposition to the War Department.

SENATOR DANIEL OF VIRGINIA

Will Make Speeches in the Kentucky Campaign—Col. Boyd One of Dewey's Escort.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The proposition of Col. James H. Tillman, of South Carolina, for the United States government to organize a company of Indian scouts for service in the Philippine campaign, is being received by the war department officials with much favor, although it cannot be stated at this time that the project, for certain reasons, will be carried out by the administration. Col. Tillman, who, in the even the idea is found to be practical, is to be commissioned captain of the company, is much impressed with the idea, and believes that such a regiment of Indian scouts would do very valuable service for the United States. He called at the executive mansion, in company with Chief Woodbury, of Minnesota, and the chief executive listened to the two gentlemen very earnestly, but did not indicate what his own opinion is as to the utility of such a regiment as proposed. He referred the gentlemen to the war department. The other day Col. Tillman was at the war department for the purpose of laying his project before the officials there, and the officials, as stated, are apparently much impressed with the idea.

The Chippewas, whom it is proposed to form into a regiment of Indian scouts, are noted as being very fine scouts. They are said to be excellent fighters, and have a natural love for excitement. It is argued that they are used to hardship and would be able to stand a great deal of privation, and thus render invaluable service to the government.

Col. Tillman was seen the other day, and he said the proposition is being made seriously, and he thinks that the war department will give it favorable consideration, and that it will not be long before the Indian regiment is formed.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, is in Washington. He said that he has received an invitation to visit Kentucky during the pending gubernatorial campaign, and that he will accept, and make several speeches in different counties of the state for Goebel. The senator is a strong campaign speaker, and is well known on the stump, and it is thought by Kentucky democrats that he will render effective service for the democratic nominee.

Kentucky democrats are somewhat worried over the report coming from Kentucky that the secretary of state will refuse to grant the application of the Goebel party for the regular democratic emblem, the rooster, but will grant it to the Brown faction. This, it is stated, would have the effect of making the Brown ticket, on the official ballot, the regular democratic ticket, and would place the Goebel ticket in the place of the bolters. Republicans of Kentucky in the city are of the opinion that this will be done, and that the result will be that the Brown ticket will get several thousand votes it would not otherwise receive.

Col. James E. Boyd, assistant attorney-general of the United States, it is announced, has been placed on the official committee that will go to New York for the purpose of escorting Admiral Dewey to Washington. Colonel Boyd will represent on the committee the attorney-general and the department of justice.

The committee is composed of representative army officers, naval officers and officials of the different executive departments.

Among Southern men in Washington is W. Boyd Evans, of Columbia, S. C., while in Washington he is stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel, and will remain at the capital city for several days.

The marriage was announced the other day of Miss Fannie E. Ringgold, daughter of the late Col. George Hay Ringgold, U. S. A., to J. Nisbet Smith. The couple are well known throughout the South and have many friends at Charleston, S. C., and other Southern cities.

James F. Daub has been commissioned postmaster at Seward, N. C.

Mr. Frank Houston, of Charlotte, is in Washington on a business trip. He is stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel and will be here for several days.

It was reported here today that Hudson had made a further confession in the Binkley murder case, to the effect that after Reed shot Binkley the money was stolen from his pockets. This statement was denied by Hudson on being interviewed by a Sentinel reporter.

WILL BE INTERESTING.

Captain Fisher's Suit Against the Waterworks.

As announced in the Telegram a day or two ago the complaints in the case of Capt. B. J. Fisher against the Greensboro Water Co. have been prepared and was yesterday filed in the office of the superior court clerk. The document is the work of Col. Jno. N. Staples, and is a long one. It puts reports to contain matter and a statement of facts that has not appeared in any of the previous cases against the water company.

Col. Staples claims to have brought to light a printed contract that has not heretofore been in evidence.

Mr. R. R. King, for the water company, in speaking of the matter this morning, said there was no such document in existence, signed by him, as claimed. Mr. King further said that if there was such a contract it would make no difference and would not amount to anything.

Died From Hydrophobia.

A very peculiar case of hydrophobia is reported by the Stanley Enterprise. About two years ago a dog, seemingly in play with Charles Little, a young man who lives in Stanley county, dropped some foam on Little's hand. Sores broke out on his hand. The dog proved to be mad. Some time ago Little started to Albemarle, but after going a few miles he refused to continue further. Later, he became mad and was carried to the hospital at Morganton for treatment. The hospital physicians diagnosed the case as a very plain case of hydrophobia and the young man died in terrible agony last Friday.

WHY THE LION HESITATES.

White-winged peace sits trembling between Great Britain and the Transvaal. The South African republic's sullenness alone has probably been sufficient provocation to cause the former to begin hostilities. If some other nation, able to defend itself than the Boers—and the existing circumstances were different—had dared to stem the current of the British ire as Kruger's country has done, English guns would have thundered at her gates and English legions have tramped over her soil long since. But a very weighty circumstance exists in the present case which has given the lion pause before he leaps. It is stated upon high authority that there is the greatest probability that, in the event of the war in question, all the fierce natives from the Indian Ocean on the east to the Atlantic on the west will rush to arms, glad at the opportunity of gratifying their nursed revenge and to slay their oppressors. It is this menace that caused Lord Salisbury to place a restraining hand on the bellicose spirit at first manifested by Mr. Chamberlain, the British colonial secretary, in his dealings with the Africans.

This condition has also a soothing effect on the hostile spirits of the Boers, for it is intimated that the British have secured the allegiance of the warlike Basuto negroes in case the Orange Free State should ally itself with its neighbor republic.

In a learned discussion of this formidable menace to the designs of England, as well as the scrapping inclination of their opponents, the Philadelphia Record observes that:

"The natives of South Africa regard the British and the Boers alike as interlopers who have robbed them of their most fertile lands and of their wealth in gold and diamonds. In Cape Colony the negroes number 1,150,000 to 375,000 whites. In Natal there are 45,000 whites to 450,000 negroes. The Transvaal contains 300,000 whites and 650,000 Kaffirs. In the Orange Free State the whites number 80,000 and the blacks 130,000. Rhodesia has a white population of 13,000 in the midst of half a million well armed, discontented and warlike Kaffirs. Then there are the large native populations of Bechuanaland, Basutoland, Swaziland, where few white men have made settlements. Besides the great numerical superiority of four to one of the negroes over the whites, there is the consideration (which neither the British nor the Boers can safely overlook) that the settlement of every colony in South Africa has been fiercely disputed by the natives. Cape Colony, the Orange Free State and the Transvaal each in turn has had to contend for existence with the Zulus, Kaffirs and Matabeles. These fierce natives would hail with joy a war between their British and Dutch oppressors in the promise which it would afford them of gathering the spoils of their enemies and of recovering their own liberty. The negro terror in South Africa may, therefore, constitute the most effective restraint upon the warlike proclivities of the British and Dutch of that region. After all the claim of the outlanders of Johannesburg for an extension of political privileges is a small matter compared with the probable necessity of a struggle for existence with the natives. Common prudence dictates to both parties the suspension of their quarrel in the presence of such an enemy. It is not improbable that this consideration has more weight in London and Pretoria than the best arguments of the Peace Society."

Russell's braves are now confronted with another opportunity to show their valor, in the order issued yesterday in regard to recruits for the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth volunteers. It is presumed that Col. James Young will wish a few days' recuperation from the effects of his recent engagement before offering his services to Uncle Sam.

THE TRUE KNIGHTS.

Under the above caption Dr. Ivey, in the Raleigh Christian Advocate writes about the heroes of war, those whose feats of daring are recorded in the dusty books of the library and those who have recently won fame in the Spanish and Philippine wars. He closes with the following paragraph, which expresses what we have often thought so much better than we can express it that we copy it:

We have lately thought much of our chief heroes. They are not the men who carry guns under foreign skies, or brave death on ocean waves or amid tempests or fire. They are poor, obscure preachers of the gospel who are doing picket duty for Christ on the little dreary circuits and missions of our conferences. Funston, swimming the river with a rope in his mouth under a murderous fire of bloodthirsty savages, dared death amid the huzzas of appreciative and heroic companions. But there is many a poor preacher who, practically alone, fights from conference to conference the battles of Jesus. No human applause ever greets his ear. He brushes up and cleans his well-worn clothes, goes up to conference with his meagre collection, receives his appointment, returns to scenes of toil and struggle, until the great Captain calls him above, and angels sing for him the psalms of praise which make the arches of Heaven ring. Bravest soldiers of the cross, we send them a greeting. The self-sacrificing, patient wives are just as worthy of praise, and are as truly heroines as their husbands are heroes.

LEGAL X ROADS.

The Constitution and the Statute Law Conflict.

The constitution says taxation must bear equally everywhere.

The statute law says that tax assessors must assess all property at full value.

And here we have a legal X roads. The corporation commission has assessed railroad property in North Carolina at its full value. The roads are therefore applying for an injunction from Judge Simonton, seeking relief from the order on the ground that it would make taxation bear unequally on the railroads as compared with private property, which is not generally assessed at its full value.

Now 2,792 affidavits from people in various counties in the state, say that private property is assessed at full value; 282 affidavits from various people in various counties say that assessment is 1/2 or 2/3 of real value. The state auditor and state treasurer say that private property is undervalued for taxation. If, therefore, some property—only 282 properties—is undervalued then it would not be uniform or equal or dead square, would it, to tax railroad property at full value, even though the greater part of private property—2,792 properties—is assessed at full value or even overvalued?

There ought to be no X roads in the law.—Charlotte Observer.

A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea.

A prominent Virginia editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read his editorial. From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. Wave and flicker over her;
Underneath, the clovers fleet
Nod and nod, and kiss her feet.

Swaying, swinging,
Swaying, swinging,
Some one calls the little maid;
Dreaming, singing,
Dreaming, singing,
O'er the happy face a shade.
See the leaves above bend low;
Will she stay, or will she go?
Ah! the clovers, lithe and fleet
Are not faster than her feet.

Swaying, swinging,
Swaying, swinging,
Back she comes, the little maid!
Dreaming, singing,
Dreaming, singing,
Tenderly the leaves give shade,
And the clovers love her much.
See them crowd and try to touch
Hand or waist or hem of gown—
Maid that minds without a frown!

Swaying, swinging,
Swaying, swinging,
Rock her gently, breezes soft!
Dreaming, singing,
Dreaming, singing,
Rustle lightly, leaves aloft!
Clover blooms, that love her much,
Pray stand back and do not touch,
For an hour a love-watch keep;
Little maid is fast asleep!

"I suffered with piles eleven years before using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve; now my health is fully restored—I feel like a new born man!"—Conrad Stange, Pierz, Minn. A soothing, healing preparation of standard merit; beware of worthless counterfeits. Howard Gardner.

James P. Tarvin, of Lexington, Ky., is credited with starting a movement to amalgamate all the silver organizations of the country.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chilli Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

The northern forestry park association is seeking to secure a national reserve in the Cass lake region, in Minnesota.

"Best on the market for coughs and colds and all bronchial troubles; for crup it has no equal," writes Henry R. Whitford, South Canaan, Conn., of One Minute Cough Cure. Howard Gardner.

Peter Pearson, of Perry, Okla., has invented a system of wireless telegraphy that operated successfully at 40 miles.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it standard over the greater part of the civilized world. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

An eastern syndicate has bought 8,000 acres of land near Clay City, Ill., to locate 200 families of French colonists.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. This writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Attempted Assassination.

Mr. Henry Bullard, one of Cedar Creek's most prominent young farmers, had a narrow escape from death at the hands of assassins last night. About 8 o'clock last night, while on his way home from Vander, and about a mile and a half from that place, was fired at from one of the loneliest and darkest spots on the road, and two loads of shot whistled all around him, but fortunately not one shot took effect. Mr. Bullard ran to the house of Ed Carter, about two hundred yards away, where he obtained an escort home.

This morning Mr. Dunk Downing and a party of Mr. Bullard's neighbors went to the scene of the shooting and found evidences on the trees and bushes that indicated that one barrel of the would-be assassin's gun was loaded with buck shot and the other with large size bird shot.—Fayetteville Observer.

Private letters from Rome received at the Catholic University discredit the reports of the Pope's illness.

Infrequent and Improper Shampooing are responsible for dry, scrawny and variable colored hair. Many people have a goodly supply of hair, and it would be beautiful were it not that dandruff had destroyed its life and made it lustreless. Everyone's head should be shampooed once a week with some non-injurious and hair-giving wash.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Stokes court begins next Monday at Danbury.

Jones Fuller, of Durham, was in the city today.

The weather this morning was cold enough to render fire very comfortable.

Attorney D. H. Blair, of Winston, spent yesterday afternoon in the city.

Reginald Bailey, of Winston, was here this morning enroute to the University.

Will H. Matthews made a hurried business trip down to Liberty this afternoon.

J. L. Lullow, of Winston, spent last night in the city and went home this morning.

The 40 per cent. reduction sale is still on at the clothing store of the Fishplate-Katz Co.

Watt Martin, of Winston, passed through the city last night returning home from Virginia.

S. Bryant, of Randleman, director of the Greensboro Loan & Trust Co., was in the city today.

T. W. Jones and E. C. Gudger, of Chapel Hill, were in the city last night stopping at the McAdoo.

S. C. Pool, of Washington, is in the city for a few days, visiting his people at their home on Ashe street.

You can get a good, comfortable winter outfit tomorrow at 308 South Elm for one week's wages at $1.50 per day.

A. M. Stack, a prominent attorney of Monroe, passed through today enroute to Danbury where Stokes court meets next week.

Last night was almost cold enough for frost. Toward daybreak many people who went to bed with light covering got up and hunted comforts.

"What's the news?" a reporter sung
out in the store of Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees, this afternoon. "Sold a number of fall suits today," answered Mr. Rees with a broad smile.

The absolute necessity for another hotel in this city becomes more and more apparent. Last night people were compelled to sleep on cots and some went to private boarding houses.
The McAdoo sent a whole bus load down to the Clegg for lack of room for them.

The street work on South Elm shows the advantage in having grades established on all streets so that when a man wants to build he can place his house on the proper elevation to be in harmony with the street when it is permanently fixed. Mr. John A. Hod-gin's residence will be left considerably lower than the street.

Mr. John A. Kirkman, of Greensboro, came to Winston yesterday and left by private conveyance for Yadkin county to visit friends. He is seventy-seven years old and has not been able to do any work in ten years. He was paralyzed two years ago, since which time he has been quite feeble and unable to walk alone. However, he is jolly and pleasant.—Sentinel.

WANTED A REQUISITION.

One of Many Funny Incidents at the Ticket Window.

Last night after supper a well-dressed and well-to-do looking negro approached the ticket window at the Southern Depot and asked Mr. Gram-ham:

"What time does the first train pass
here going to Washington?"

Mr. Graham answered: "At 10:47."

"What time will it get to Washington?"

"6:42 in the morning," replied Mr.
Graham.

"Pretty good breakfast time," observed the negro.

Mr. Graham "lowed that it was.

"Well, won't you please give me a requisition?" asked the negro.

"A what?" said Graham.

"A requisition," repeated the darkey.

Mr. Graham was puzzled, but finally suggested that it was a time table or schedule folder he wanted and the negro said: "Dat's it." He took it and departed.

Death of a Young Lady.

Miss Carrie Stitt died Wednesday night near Monroe, of some lung disease. She was a lady of lovable Christian character, and a consistent member of the Presbyterian church.
She was a sister of Mrs. W. E. Gatlin, of this city.

Horse Ran Away.

Mr. Ernest Holt, of Burlington, who has been in the city several weeks, was out driving his fine horse yesterday afternoon, having in his buggy with him a friend from Burlington.
When out near the Keely Institute the horse became frightened and ran away, completely demolishing the buggy and tearing up the harness.
The occupants of the buggy, however,
escaped unhurt.

Nearly Completed.

The debris is gradually being cleared away from the front of the handsome new Southern Loan & Trust Company's building.

The work on the interior of the house is nearing completion.
When this elegant structure is ready
